Hixburg

Hixburg, Aug. 30.- The welcome mat is out for our new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Alley, of Norfolk, parents of Mrs. Patrick Lair, have bought the old Daniel Mann farm. It touches the Lair Place and the Hubbard Tract.

Construction will begin on their new home about Sept. 1.

Mr. J. S. Hix, of Thomasville, N. C., was not well when he arrived at the home of Mr. Willie Hix on Tuesday. He had planned to stay two or three days, but an acute attack of arthritis sent him back to his doctor in N. C. on Wednesday.

The treatment was successful, but he was told to stay off his feet for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Daneel le Roux and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Moore, of N. C., Mrs. le Roux's parents, returned from a trip to Boston, Canada, etc. on Saturday.

Mr. le Roux, principal of Pamplin Elementary School, came to Pamplin on Monday to get things in a line to open school on Thursday, Sept. 1.

Miss Bessie Irving has returned from Richmond, and she is said to be feeling better.

Mr. Otis Gilliam has recovered enough from his operation to be able to walk around in his yard.

Mrs. Marvin Glover had her tonsils removed at the Virginia Baptist Hospital last week.

Sunday callers on Comdr. and Mrs. Patrick Lair were Comdr. and Mrs. J. Metzer, Comdr. Metzer, who retired from the Navy recently, has a farm in Cumberland Co., appropriately named "Anchor's Down."

Mrs. Alfred Harwood Sr., and Jr. and Hanner visited the three Hix families on Friday.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Burks called on Miss Margie Hix.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Evans, of Union, N. J., spent last week with the Bob Covingtons and other relatives in this vicinity.

Sam Erwin, of Winston-Salem, N. C., was the guest of his mother, Mrs. W. M. Edwin on Wednesday.

On Sept. 11, Anne Martin will leave for Madison College. and Luella Martin will go to Marion College.

Mrs. E. N. Pleasants, Edwin Fore's sister, who has been in a hospital in Philadelphia for several weeks, continues to be very ill.

Mrs. Gladys Baldwin continues to improve. She is in a hospital in Washington.

Friday A. M., Broderick Pack, Brian Thomas, Henry Earl Covington and Percy Lucado, Jr., left for a week-end at Virginia Beach. These were graduates of Appomattox High School last June.

As Patricia Covington has enjoyed the work at Pamplin Elementary School, she is counting the days until school opens, Mrs. Lucille Webb will be her teacher.

Mr. N. S. Topping, who lived at Hixburg for many years, passed away on Thursday, August 25, in a Newport News hospital. The funeral service was held at Claremont Methodist Church, with interment in Claremont Cemetery, with Masonic rites.

Mr. Topping has been a Mason for 50 years, "Uncle Nate," as he was called will be remembered for the down-to-earth gospel he taught from the Bible Class at what was then Matthews Baptist Church at Hixburg. Someone that lived in the house with him for many years said that they had never heard him make an unkind remark about anyone!

Those who attended the service from here were Mrs. Elwin Fore, his niece, Mrs. Jennie Young, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Covington.

PERSONALS

Dr. W. Twyman Williams has returned from his vacation, and will preach this Sunday at Walker's Presbyterian Church at 11 A. M., and at the Appomattox Court House Church at 8 P. M.

Mrs. J. A. Smith received word this morning that her daughter, Mrs. Henry Perdieu, of Carey, O., died early today. Funeral arrangements have not been completed. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roland Smith announce the engagement of their daughter, Carrie Daphne Smith, to Tommy Scott Drinkard, son of Mrs. M. W. Drinkard and the late Mr. M. W. Drinkard, all of Appomattox, Va.

The wedding date is set for Oct. 8, 1960, at 8:00 P. M., at the Red Oak Baptist Church.

All friends and relatives are cordially invited.

Appomattox is a growing town.

Subscription rate: $2.00 a year; payable in advance.

When a man gets a few hundred miles from home, and his neighbor, how he can talk!

The man who always works to get something for nothing winds up without enough nothing.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
from the Bible
Be still, and know that I am God.—(Psalm 46:10)
These are days of uncertainty in our beloved land, of anxious questioning about our future. Frightening predictions are made on every hand, and the temptation is to lose faith and courage. We seek: pease for our country and peace of mind and soul... Let us take a quiet moment to reflect: Do we love God? Do we trust in Him?

FLY HIGH
NAVAL AVIATOR
To keep the fleet flying the Navy needs pilots... the best pilots. That's why Naval Aviators are given the finest flight training possible.
And you can get that training by qualifying for the NAVCAD Program, which is open to men with two years' college, or the AOC Program for college graduates.
